I did not know Paulene very well ,just well enough to speak when I saw her out years ago. I do know her daughter Anna and her grandson Brandon as well as other family members of her . I just wanted to say a Bible verse that comes to my mind and pray her children and family find the comfort in the days ahead that only God can give to them. Proverbs 31:28 Her children arise up and call her blessed;her husband also,and he praiseth her.The bible also tells us in Matt 7;16 You will know them by their fruits. I can say this she raised a wonderful family . I have seen such examples in her daughter Anna of grace and kindness to all who was around her. I can remember a very long time ago of an incident with a young man that some boys at school where picking on and I saw a very young middle school student Brandon May was with this group and he stopped the boys from picking on this young man . I'm not sure if Brandon even remembers what I am talking about but it will always be something I remember him for. I said that to say this. These people saw a wonderful example of a mother /grandmother living a Christian life in front of them and she spread that to her family . God bless you all in your loss of you dear mother /grandmother .
