“ First, her name is spelled wrong here... Her name is Racheal! Emphasis on the RacHEAL! Because Racheal knew God created her to be a healer similar to that of himself!

Second, this woman was a pillar of the Hope City House of Prayer family as well as the Hilltop community in which she served in outreach! Such a gem! I cannot tell you how many she has interceded for in their times of need and how she had even reached out to me to pray for her neighbor who ended up in the icu with no family and from our prayers, she was HEALED!

Racheal the healer is what her legacy remains to me. She healed people and animals through calling on the name of JESUS CHRIST!

“Condolences to the family, and friends, of Racheal Maynard. Even though I have moved from Columbus, Ohio to Frisco, Texas, we remained in constant contact. She was one of my closest friends. I remember when I finally was able to find a good paying job there, but had no form of transportation, she voluntarily picked me up at home, and would drive me all the way into Pataskala, OH. She did it for such a nominal fee, and I know it was a sacrifice for her. Afterward, I devoted my every attention to blessing her every time I was able. I'm so glad I was given the opportunity to do it while she was still here. She is one of the most devoted Christians that I have ever met, and I look, with anticipation, of seeing her again! My life has been impacted by her influence, and I know I have been enriched through her sacrifices. I say to this family, that I can only imagine the grief you surely must feel. However, take heart, for you have produced a person who has touched many lives. May God comfort you, and bring peace to your souls, during this time of your family's great bereavement.
