“ I had the privilege of working with Raquel at O. U. She was such a caring, loving, person with a great personality. The students loved her as she did them. I had retired from Elem., and would ask her for advice at times. She was always willing to help and would brighten your day with her smile. My prayers go out to her family and my heart aches for her loss.

“ Raquel was larger than life, any room lit up with her presence. She was always greeted with excitement by her many friends because her personality and smile were infectious. She was Fierce, loyal and honest which made her edearing. I know many hearts are aching, as mine is; however, I pray she has found the peace and joy like she brought to all of us. In her words"Boy O" I'm going to miss her. Prayers for her family and friends.

“ I had Raquel as a student. She was a very beautiful and bright young lady.
Then, years later she was a teaching colleague of mine.
Sweet Memories.
Prayers for all that loved her 🙏💜

“ My condolences to Raquel’s family, the Cain family and the Fish family.

I know there are no words that can ease the pain you are suffering at the lost of your loved one.

Please remember, many prayers are being prayed on your behalf.

Prayers asking GOD to give you strength to endure this time of sorrow, and give you comfort in your memories of Rachel and days past.

Sending Sympathy to both families, may God bless you with peace.
