I miss you with all my soul. I love you, my brother. You were my rock throughout childhood, my confidant, and one of the most gentle and kind souls I've ever been blessed to encounter. I always imagined what life was going to be like once we were two old cranky ole hippies. I miss your crooked grin, building forts in the hills up Marrowbone, that silly dance you always did that made me smile ear-to-ear, and will never forget how hard it was to keep Christmas or other holidays gifts a surprise. I'll never be able to pass a turtle in the road now without stopping traffic to help get the thing across the road... regardless how thick traffic was lol. I love you, Brother. You're in my heart everyday and I'm proud to have called you BROTHER.

I will never say goodbye, only , "See you soon! <3

“ I miss you my n beautiful. Brother. Your beautifully kind soul will remain with me forever. Losing you took a piece of my heart. I can't accept this. You were my rock growing up. A humble person who would help a stranger eat before himself. Rest easy my best friend. I always thought wed grow old and keep making corny jokes. God I miss u every day. I'd trade places with you any day.
