Ronnie Douglas Maynard Obituary

Phillipians 2:5

Let this mind be in you, which is also in Christ Jesus.

Ronnie Douglas Maynard, 78, was born April 11, 1947 in Beauty, Kentucky. He was an elder at Scott County Church of Christ and previously served as an elder at Inez Church of Christ. He was not perfect but was a model Christian to all. He loved the Lord with all his heart. Ronnie was a simple man that didn't hate anyone. He lived his life for God, loved his family and served his country. He was a veteran who was proud to have served his country. Ronnie was an avid fan of the Cincinnati Reds and UK basketball.

He was preceded in death by his first wife Martha Maynard, parents Vernal and Gladys Maynard, and brothers Danny Joe and Gary Maynard.

His survivors include his wife Dolly Maynard of Georgetown. His children Rodney (Lenita) Maynard of Georgetown, Anna (Chauncey) Sartin of Georgetown, Janet (Ed) Muncy of Lexington, and Deborah (Shannon) Ison of Georgetown.

Grandchildren include Ethan Sartin, Brent (Leighia) Sartin, Allyson (Jonathan)

Hoard, Benjamin (Kasey) Ison, Ashlee Hutchison, David (Savannah) Hutchison.

Great grandchildren include Nova Sartin, Finley Sartin, Cohen Sartin, Eleanor Shea Hoard, Liam Hutchison, and Greyson Hutchison.

Ronnie was known as a “Pa” to all the grandkids and their friends. He was a great husband, father, and Pa to all. To know Ronnie, was to love him.

Ronnie was an exemplary Christian who loved God and his family and friends dearly. I remember his smile and wonderful personality and his posts to encourage others to come to Church. Without a doubt, he's with his Lord and Savior and his family and friends. Rest, Ronnie.
