Wow. Such a wonderful tribute. She was always so sweet and kind to me, no matter where I met her. She always said hello. Last time I saw her was in the nursing home. Her door was shut and I knocked and she said, "Come on in". We chatted a few minutes and I left. Praying for the family. Hang on to these precious memories.

*Such a Beautiful tribute to a very special woman Sara May Callaham my dear friend.I started working for her in the early 1990's as a house cleaning lady and continued working till I had a accident in 2017 and had to quit .We still remained friends and I went to visit her while she was sick and let her meet my two Granddaughters.It was hard seeing such a strong willed and caring woman's health fail .She loved all her family and was right there when they needed her .She was a very kind woman and tried to help everyone she could .It was a Blessing to know her .Sara will always hold a special place in my heart .Now she is United with Johnny and J.D. and will never be in any pain anymore.I wish I could have came to the funeral today to pay my last respects but couldn't make it due to sickness in the family.I have been praying for all the family and friends as they lay a very special woman to rest .Love and prayers to you all !! I will always have my memories of Sara !! A very Amazing Woman .God bless everyone.

“Kelly, A year and a half later, I'm just learning of Sara's passing. I left the funeral service profession in 2008 and I lost contact with so many. And as a result, I'm usually the last to hear when a colleague passes.

In life, there are certain people with whom you cross paths that you never forget, even if you just cross paths for a short time. And Sara was one of those people. We only crossed paths for a few weeks, but I never forgot her and thought of her often. She was one of the sweetest ladies I've met.

When I came up there and helped you all at the funeral home for that couple of weeks in 2007, Sara made sure I was taken care of while I was there. In fact all of you treated me like I was one of you. And I never forgot that.

Several times over the years I have thought about driving up and visiting with y'all at the funeral home, but I never seem to make it. But just because I haven't been back up doesn't mean that I've not thought of you. And I will always be thankful that our paths crossed all those years ago.

“ I am heartbroken. Sara Mae was the kind of person we should all aspire to be--intelligent, caring and generous. She was a tremendous blessing and advocate for her family, her friends and her community. There will never be another like her.

I hope Johnny, John David and all her family and friends that have gone on before her were there to give her a tremendous welcome into Heaven. Rest well, my dear friend...

“ I’m Karen and I’m writing this for my sister Peggy:

I got to know Sara when I met Orville. Johnny and Orville were very close friends and shared many adventures. Sometimes they shared their stories and then there were some adventures they knew should not/could not be shared!! They survived and had many, many laughs!!

Sara, Johnny, Orville and I went on many vacations together and I loved the many shopping experiences with her!! Sara was always fun and we loved to talk with sharing a variety of experiences!!

Sara and I also had positive visions for our community!! We served together as members of several civic organizations!!

A very special and memorable moment was when I gave birth to our son, Stuart!! Sara and Johnny were there to help Orville and me celebrate the most important occasion in our lives!!

After I was diagnosed with dementia, Sara visited, called me, and would bring me special desserts!!

I loved my friend Sara and know she was welcomed to join the angels in heaven!!!

With love, Peggy Blankenship Stepp
