

Thelma Jean Booth

October 19, 1953 - June 24, 2026

Thelma Jean “Nanny” Booth, 72, of Beauty, Kentucky, passed away on June 24, 2026.

Born on October 19, 1953, at Williamson Memorial in West Virginia, Thelma lived a life centered on family, love, and caring for others. She was known for her kind heart and generous spirit, always opening her home and her life to those who needed her. Throughout the years, she helped raise many children, including several of her nieces and nephews, leaving a lasting impact on countless lives.

“Nanny” found joy in gardening and took great pride in tending to her flowers and plants. More than anything, she cherished spending time with her family, creating memories that will be treasured for generations.

She is survived by her loving husband, Donald Booth; her daughter, Alison (Tyler) Hensley; one grandchild, Johnna Hensley; her sister and best friend, Phyllis (Jack) Lovins; her sister, Patty (Jay) Eastman; and her brother, Walter Marcum.

She was preceded in death by her sisters, Janice May and Carol Meade; her brother, John “Fig” Marcum; her father, Walter Marcum; and her mother, Louise Marcum.

Nanny will be remembered for her compassion, strength, and unwavering devotion to her family. Her love touched many lives, and her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, June 28, 2026, at Kermit Freewill Baptist Church at 12:00 noon.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society in honor of Thelma. Arrangements are under the direction of the Callaham Funeral Home, Inez, KY.
