Craig was one of a kind, a kind, loving person. I will miss reading his posts and stories on Facebook, no one could write like he could. I will see you again on the Sunny Banks of Sweet Deliverance, until then rest easy, my friend.

“ Craig Justice, one of the good guys. With God's mercy and saving Grace, Craig is now perfect in our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray for God's blessings and comfort for his sons and family. Cherish your memories and look forward to being with your Dad in future time. To God be the glory, for He knows what is best for us, and how much we can endure.
Praying for his family and friends.
Craig has a beautiful singing voice. A gift from The Great I Am. Our sorrow at his leaving, is heaven's joy. Your memories are your treasurers.
Praise Our Heavenly Father, for His mercy and love endures forever!
Amen!

“ I shared this with Sara today. My favorite memory of Craig, was at Ella's first birthday party. I didn't know him very well, but I had made chicken salad and he comes rolling up to me and asked where the bathroom is. Said he had eaten some chicken salad and it had an effect on him. I am thinking "Oh no", I guess my eyes bugged out. Then he told me it was some of the best he had eaten. He was a precious man! Heaven gained a great angel! Prayers for the family!
