“ A friend and Brother for almost 60 years. Through good times and bad, and through many adventures together. That kind of friend cannot be replaced. He encouraged me with scripture when I was young. In this life true lifelong friends are hard to come by. It is not easy to lose one. However, I believe as David did that it is God's purpose to raise His children back to life in the resurrection. We will take up where we left off. My condolences to his family, friends, and congregation. John Tewell
