“ May the good Lord shine his many blessings upon the Thompson family! Heaven gained an Angel 🙏 like no other.....he gained Isaiah 😭 Even though He took him he will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew him. He was such a special little boy who,from what I've been reading on Facebook, could brighten the darkest of days with his charm and infectious smile 😊 May God wrap you in His loving arms and comfort you in the days, weeks and months ahead. Fly high Angel 🙏🕊️

“ Isaiah was a kid that when meeting him you felt like you had known him for ever. I did not know Isaiah very well but went to visit him and his family at their house. Upon arrival we were greeted by a little boy who was so full of joy and cheer and was so excited to open gifts. He opened every gift but one particular item caught his attention. It was a nerf gun. He was bound and determined to shoot Willie with it. I soon realized he was a typical little boy wanting to show me his fish on the wall, knives and guns. I had gone there hoping to be a blessing but Isaiah was the one doing all of the blessing. I felt very blessed to have met him. Although sick he was and is a true champion. I really believe that heaven is a real place and will be filled with real people. Scripture teaches us that the Lord has a very special place in his heart for children; even teaching us to become as them. Zechariah teaches us about the restoration of Jerusalem with this verse, "And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof." I believe that the Lord must have purposed the life of this amazing little boy to fill the streets of New Jerusalem. Mary also had a son that was purposed for something eternal and amazing and his name was Jesus. Her sons purpose in life was to bring life eternally to all that would believe. Isaiah must have been purposed to bring joy as a child to all that make heaven their home throughout all of eternity. What an amazing thought it is to think about entering the gates of that city to be greeted by a child (Isaiah) that the Lord has purposed to be a child in heaven bringing joy with his laughter and smiles while ages roll on. Truly this family's and community's loss is Heaven's gain. Just as he brought a blessing to my life that day while visiting him, he will now get to do that as a child for all that enter Heaven's Glory World.

*May God Bless This Family,
Brent Haney*
