

Woodrow Baisden

January 5, 1923 - January 11, 2016

Woodrow Baisden, 93, of Breedon, WV passed away Monday morning, January 11, 2016 at St. Mary's Hospital in Huntington, WV. He was born on January 5, 1923 in Marrowbone, WV to Eliza Baisden and Robert Sturgill.

Woodrow is survived by his daughters Deloris (Andy) Perry of Columbus, OH; Linda (Barry) Hughes of Groveport, OH; Wanda (Charles) Pollinger of Ft. Gay, WV; Sheila Baisden of Gahanna, OH; and Teresa (Keith) Bare of Columbus, OH; sons Woodrow Baisden, Jr. and Odell (Deana) Baisden, both of Breedon, WV; and sons-in-law Albert Perry of Dunlow, WV and Kevin King of Galloway, OH.

He is also survived by 19 grandchildren; 37 great-grandchildren; many great-great grandchildren; step-grandchildren and step-great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 67 years Alma, his daughters Minerva Perry, Juanita Baisden, Rita King, and infant daughter Virginia; and granddaughter Rosella (Perry) Whitt. He was also preceded in death by his siblings Edith (Baisden) Chafins, Lee (Bus) Baisden, Ott Baisden, Robert Dillon, Ken Sturgill, and Georgie (Sturgill) Martinez.

Though he tried three times to enlist in the army during World War II, he was turned down each time due to an enlarged heart. Instead he served in the 3 C's, The Civilian Conservation Corp. for 6 months in 1941. Upon returning to Mingo County, he married the love of his life, Alma Collins in September 1942, and they started their family together. Woodrow was self-employed for awhile and worked for the coal mines in Kistler, WV, before accepting a job at Buckeye Steel in Columbus, OH. He worked there until 1963 when he accepted a job to oversee and operate the natural gas compressor station and line network for Burchett Oil and Gas.

In 1969 he also took on another job, that of being a school bus driver for Mingo County schools in order to feed and provide for his growing family. A large explosion at the compressor station in June, 1977, in which Woodrow was severely burned and nearly killed, forced him to retire from both those jobs in 1980. He wasn't one to sit around, however, and soon he and Alma were volunteering at the Senior Citizens' Center and food bank. He was director there for about 11 years.

He was commissioned a Kentucky Colonel in December 1999, and was a member of the Silver Haired Legislature for many years.

Woodrow was loyal, funny, very hardworking, generous, and extremely honest. He loved his family, his friends, his community, the Smoky Mountains, and politics. He was always happy to see you, and if you ever needed help, he would help you in any way he could.

Friends can pay their respects on Wednesday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. at the Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home in Warfield, KY and on Thursday from 4:00-11:00 p.m. at the Welcome Home Church in Jenny's Creek, WV, where he was a member. The funeral will be Friday at 1:00 p.m. at the Welcome Home Church with Rev. Daniel Perry presiding. Burial will be at the Woodrow and Alma Baisden Family Cemetery in Breedon, WV. Arrangements are under the direction of the Richmond-Callaham Funeral Home in Inez, Kentucky.

“ Love and Prayers for Comfort and Peace for the Family. I know it has been a very difficult past few weeks for you all. Woodrow will be fondly remembered and sadly missed. He has always been a great person and it is a great loss not only to family and friends but to the community. Sad to see the Greatest Generation of people leaving us behind. So many of the loved ones and friends that we all have grown up with in our little community have gone home. Rest In Peace Until We Meet Again.
